ABOUT ME

"I am a passionate and dedicated technology enthusiast currently pursuing Advanced Diploma in Software Engineering (ADSE) at Aptech Pakistan and specializing in Cloud Data Engineering at Saylani Karachi. With a strong interest in software development, cloud technologies, and data solutions, I am committed to building scalable and efficient applications that make a real-world impact.

I enjoy exploring cutting-edge technologies, learning how systems work at the core, and applying my knowledge through hands-on projects. My current focus areas include web development, cloud computing, data engineering, and cybersecurity.

I believe in continuous learning and problem-solving, and I am eager to collaborate on innovative projects that challenge my skills and help me grow as a tech professional. Open to opportunities in software development, cloud data engineering, and cybersecurity."
